

Morning helps boost cancer charity funds

Hundreds of people across the area put the kettle on and got involved in the World's Biggest Coffee Morning in aid of Macmillan Cancer Support.

Newbold School gave support to this valuable cause by hosting its own coffee morning. Children from Years 5 & 6 became waiters and waitresses for this event, welcoming visitors from the community as well as parents and staff.

Morning helps boost cancer charity funds

