

Singing school children hit the high note in front of Princess

Newbold School Choir travelled to London to sing festive songs to Princess Alexandra. They performed in a charity concert in St George's Church, Hanover Square. Head Teacher and conductor, Pat Eastwood, said "the children were thrilled to meet a real Princess".

